

Christine Vespe

Ed.D., M.A.

---

Dr. Christine Vespe is a dedicated educator with over 35 years experience in the field of post secondary, secondary, and elementary education. Over her career she has held various roles including teacher, Director of Athletics, Assistant Principal, Principal and most recently retired as a District Superintendent of 11 years. As a member of numerous professional organizations she continues to be involved and serve, currently she is an Officer with the New Jersey Council of Educators. During her career she was named Burlington County Superintendent of the Year and was honored as Burlington County's Outstanding Woman in the Field of Education. With a passion for mentorship Christine serves as a mentor with NJEXCEL and the New Jersey Administrator Residency Program. Christine has been a speaker at numerous professional organization conventions including NJASA, NJSBA, TechSpo and a contributing writer to professional leadership publications. Dr. Vespe holds numerous education certifications and received her Bachelor and Master degrees from Rider University and her Doctorate in Innovation and Leadership from Wilmington University.

Areas of Specialty:

Women's Leadership

School Administrator Mentorship

School Leadership